

Peer Review of the Scholarly Article
Submitted to the Quarterly *Culture and Values

Title of the article:

Reviewer:

first name, family name, academic title postal address, e-mail, telephone number institution, affiliation or employer
date of review

Evaluation of the article. Please take into consideration all the enumerated criteria by grading them 1 to 5 (5 being the highest).

	Grade
Evaluation of the article's content and its relevance:
Evaluation of the paper's originality:
The article adequately acknowledges sources and reference literature
The article acknowledges the most essential scholarship, including foreign-language research
The article contains most up-to-date scholarship regarding the issues in question
Evaluation of the article's structure, its linguistic correctness as well as the editorial quality of footnotes
Overall assessment of the article

Suggested alterations and reviewer's assorted comments:

--

Reviewer's decision* (please underline the most appropriate phrase):

Part One.

- (a) the article is accepted for publication without objections or upon the introduction of minor changes
- (b) the article is accepted for publication upon the introduction of the changes enumerated above;
- (c) the article cannot be published (justification above)

Part Two

- (a) upon the introduction of the proposed changes, the article should be reviewed anew;
- (b) upon the introduction of the proposed changes and their acceptance by the editors, the article should be reviewed anew.